North Carolina Digital Online Collection of Knowledge and Scholarship

http://libres.uncg.edu/ir/

NC DOCKS is a cooperative effort to make the scholarly output of the University of North Carolina System more available to the world. Current institutional participants include Appalachian State University, Eastern Carolina University, UNC Greensboro, UNC Pembroke, and UNC Wilmington. NC DOCKS includes full text articles, audio recordings, dissertations, and other formats. All materials are indexed by Google and are freely available to scholars and researchers world-wide.

For technical questions, please contact: d_nanez@uncg.edu

All other inquiries, please contact: bucknall@uncg.edu