Intersecting Real and Virtual Worlds

Fiacre O’Duinn
fiacre@librarybazaar.com

Computers in Libraries 2010
Introduction
• Forms of ubiquitous computing
• Physical space, social or cultural aspects, and technological infrastructure
• Concepts and metaphors
• Information decoration
Forms of ubiquitous computing
Prins Hendrikkade
89/K
EUR 349000 K.K.
Woonoppervlak: 165 m²
Afstand: 1323 m
Makelaarskantoor Sabs Persoons B.V.
Complexity in Interaction
• Physical space
• Social or cultural aspects
• Technological infrastructure
Physical Space

Social and Cultural

Technological Infrastructure
Physical Space

Social and Cultural

Technological Infrastructure
Physical Space

Social and Cultural

Technological Infrastructure
Concepts and Metaphors
Ubiquitous Computing?
Information Decoration

“I wish to argue for information decoration, which means seeking a balance between aesthetic and informational quality.”

“Our environment was previously made up of objects; now it consists of information.”

Koert van Mensvoort Questions?

Fiacre O’Duinn
www.librarybazaar.com

fiacre@librarybazaar.com
@librarybazaar
Select Bibliography

